

2026 flyer

BAYER CROP SCIENCE 2026 University Mentoring Program

Building relationships, networks, and a commitment to soft skill development are essential to success as scientists and leaders.

Who should apply?

Curious scientists and engineers in early career stages (with emphasis on grad students and postdoctoral researchers)
In fields related to plant breeding, plant biology, gene editing, crop physiology, chemistry, environmental science, engineering, computer science, & data science/engineering and more

BAYER UNIVERSITY
MENTORING PROGRAM

Information Sessions

Dec 11, 2025 @ 1 PM CST

Teams Meeting ID:

Meeting ID:328 713 474 563 8

Passcode:ok2h6tT7

Jan 21, 2026 @ 2 PM CST

Teams Meeting ID:

Meeting ID:328 713 474 563 8

Passcode:ok2h6tT7

Feb 9, 2026 @ 1 PM CST

Teams Meeting ID:

Meeting ID:328 713 474 563 8

Passcode:ok2h6tT7

Applications window:

Dec 1, 2025 - Feb 22, 2026

Mentee selection emails will be sent by March 20th 2026

Scan to start your application

<https://forms.office.com/e/hw5rcXTqcZ>

1 year mentoring program with established Bayer scientists

MENTORING

1-on-1, based on technical fit
and soft skill development needs

DEVELOPMENT

Bayer-hosted workshops and seminars

NETWORKING

Within Bayer & across 30+
North American Universities

ADVANCEMENT

Career advancement advice

AWARENESS

Build business acumen and develop relationships with industry partner